My Personal Review:
When I came across this in the local Christian bookstore I immediately loved it. My 5 year old daughter ADORES princesses and this book is right up her alley. My husband and I have always been ones for good manners, but this book really puts it all together in a way my daughter understands and also wants to emulate, not just something Mommy and Daddy make her do! I'm a Christian and I'm quite okay that it's not preachy. I'm actually considering buying this for a friend's daughter and also the one for boys for her son. It's nice to see a book teaching nice ways to behave without all the characters, but still in an appealing way for children. Great book!
