All Other Nights: A Novel by Dara Horn

A Beautiful Story

A gripping epic about the great moral struggles of the Civil War. How is tonight different from all other nights? For Jacob Rappaport, a Jewish soldier in the Union army, it is a question his commanders have answered for him: on Passover in 1862 he is ordered to murder his own uncle, who is plotting to assassinate President Lincoln. After that night, will Jacob ever speak for himself? The answer comes when his commanders send him on another mission—this time not to murder a spy but to marry one.

A page-turner rich with romance and the history of America (North and South), this is a book only Dara Horn could have written. Full of insight and surprise, layered with meaning, it is a brilliant parable of the moral divide that still haunts us: between those who value family first and those dedicated, at any cost, to social and racial justice for all.

Features:
* ISBN13: 9780393064926
* Condition: NEW
* Notes: Brand New from Publisher. No Remainder Mark.
* Click here to view our Condition Guide and Shipping Prices

I found this book to be a truly touching, beautifully written story that was deeply personal and moving. The characters all seemed so real, particularly the main character. It was a very original and unusual story, creatively crafted and wonderfully developed. Its really a book not to be missed.

For More 5 Star Customer Reviews and Lowest Price:
All Other Nights: A Novel by Dara Horn - 5 Star Customer Reviews and Lowest Price!