Caught! by Willo Davis Roberts

Laura's Great Review Of Caught

Running away from their grandmother, who is caring for them while their mother is away, Vickie and Joanie discover that their father is not in his apartment and that they have become caught up in a plan designed to capture a desperate criminal.

My Personal Review:
"What are these bloodstains on the floor?" This is one exciting example of a passage in the book Caught! By Willo Davis Roberts.

This mystery book is about 2 girls. The older one is known to do stupid things and the other is her younger sister. Their father went to San Francisco and hasn't returned since! So they pack their bags, steal money from their piggy banks and set off on a journey. They are thinking, "is this a wise thing to do or are we just doing another stupid thing or even doing something deadly?" I think this book is awesome because it is exciting, heart pounding, thought provoking, mysterious, heart stopping, and will possibly cause fainting!

This book is for children ages 7-15 that love mystery books.
