Feasting on the Word: Preaching the Revised Common Lectionary, Year C, Volume 2 by Barbara Brown

Lay Worship Leader's Remarks

Lent through Eastertide. With this popular new lectionary commentary series, Westminster John Knox Press offers one of the most extensive resources for preaching on the market today. When complete, the twelve volumes of the series will cover all the Sundays in the three-year lectionary cycle, along with movable occasions, such as Christmas Day, Epiphany, Holy Week, and All Saints Day.

For each lectionary text, preachers will find four brief essays one each on the theological, pastoral, exegetical, and homiletical challenges of the text. They might focus on the Gospel text, for instance, by reading all four essays provided for that text, or they might explore connections between the Hebrew Bible, Psalm, Gospel, and Epistle texts by reading the theological essays for each one. Each lectionary year will consist of four volumes, one for the Advent and Christmas season, one for Lent and Easter, and one for each half of Ordinary Time.

My Personal Review:
Having the Theological, Pastoral, Exegetical and Homiletical perspectives on the texts all together is a real plus. This book will not replace other commentaries for extensive study. But it's just right for the preacher. The lay-out is a bit unusual at first glance - but makes great sense once it is understood.

One negative - It's a series, and this retired pastor is going to have to spend hard earned pension money purchasing other volumes in the series.
