With the twelve-volume series Feasting on the Word, Westminster John Knox Press offers one of the most extensive and well-respected resources for preaching on the market today. When complete, the twelve volumes will cover all of the Sundays in the three-year lectionary cycle, along with moveable occasions. The page layout is truly unique. For each lectionary text, preachers will find brief essays—one each on the exegetical, theological, pastoral, and homiletical challenges of the text. Each volume will also contain an index of biblical passages so that nonlectionary preachers may make use of its contents. The printed volumes for Ordinary Time include the complementary stream during Year A, the complementary stream during the first half of Year B, the semicontinuous stream during the second half of Year B, and the semicontinuous stream during Year C. Beginning with the season after Pentecost in Year C, the alternate lections for Ordinary Time not in the print volumes will be available online at feastingontheword.net.

My Personal Review:
Though I do not typically like to use a lectionary for my sermon preparation, when a pastor gets stuck in a rut, a book like this is a great help. This book lays out a logical way to move through the scriptures during the course of the year. Even if a pastor does not want to follow the entire book, just using the 6 weeks before Christmas and Easter can help the pastor break out of the same old stuff that is often presented at those times of the year. Well done, worth the price.
