I started reading this book at a major transition in my life. My best friend had just died at age 49, I had just been laid off from a job of 14 years, I was forced to move to a new city to start a new job and leave my wife and infant child during the week. This new job was very stressful and I stayed awake staring at the ceiling. I spent many nights in the temporary hotel room wondering what was going on. Then I started reading this book. For me it was a little slow starting out, but when I read the chapters on Grace, Favor, and Mercy, it rocked my world. Then, I think the next chapter was on Faith. It was like God opened the windows of heaven.

There have only been a few books that have totally changed my life outside of the Word of God; The Greatest Miracle in the World by Og Mandino, Drawing Near by John Bevere, and now this book. I pray that it helps you as much as it did me.
