One bright day, Mouse and Momma head outside to play. The wind blows in something feathery and plump—a bird, and something wiggly and pink—a worm, and something green, who hops and leaps—a frog. But before its time to go back inside, Mouse finds something that’s soft and new with petals...the prettiest flower hes ever seen! Could it mean spring is finally here?

My Personal Review:
My almost three year old son received this book today, and just loves it!! It is a very easy story to read and follow along to... I am sure in a few years he will enjoy reading it to himself... I love the pictures!!!
