Young Nim lives alone on an undiscovered tropical island with her scientist dad. Her only friends are imaginary literary figures (Alice in Wonderland, Huck Finn) as well as animals from the island (a sea lion, an iguana, a sea turtle). Nims life mirrors that of her favorite literary character, Alex Rover, the worlds greatest adventurer. But Alexandra, the author of the Alex Rover books, is an agoraphobic living in San Francisco. When Nims father disappears from the island, a twist of fate brings Nim together with Alexandra. They must find strength in one another to conquer Nims island.

My Personal Review:
This is such a great story and the cast is of the finest quality, especially Jodie and Gerry - what a pair! I can hardly wait to get the DVD for my G. Butler collection. Abigail is turning out to be quite a talented young lady who is not afraid to tackle demanding roles. Good family movies are few and far between, but this movie will delight the entire crew.
