My Personal Review:
This large cookbook has color photos with some of the recipes. It starts with an introduction that explains basic slower cooker tips (timing, flavor, altitude adjustments, basics, etc.) It has 5 categories:
1. Meaty Main Dishes
2. Busy-Day Chicken and Turkey
3. Super Soups, Stews and Chiles
4. Slow-Cooked Sandwiches
5. Very Easy Vegetables and Sides

Plus it has an index in the back of the book that is helpful.

Some interesting recipes such as "Key West Ribs" that has a citrus flavor and "Thai Peanut Chicken" for something new. There are also favorites like "Bratwurst and Sauerkraut" and "Family Favorite Beef Stew." This cookbook is well worth buying because of the wide variety of recipes.
