Parents comments:

Mercer Mayer has a delightful way of treating a very scary and serious subject for little kids. Though there WERE monsters everywhere (my son loved pointing them out), they were all drawn with personable characteristics, such as wearing broken wristwatches, band-aids, braces, and glasses. His illustrations in There Are Monsters Everywhere are very humorous and help ease the scariness of monsters. I look forward to reading his other work, There's a Nightmare in My Closet.
