My Personal Review:
This book is a must read for anyone who is afraid of taking chances in life. Whatever it is you that you face in life that you are afraid to change, implement or create, this book gives you the license to do so!

I constantly come up with so many wonderful creative ideas all of the time, but I rarely put any of them into action. What is it, fear of failure or fear of success? Who knows, and does it really matter...all I know is after reading this book it truly inspired me to try taking just one of my creative ideas one step further. I simply put it out there, took the risk to communicate and share my ideas with a few people, and wow! Its amazing how the universe delivers when you let go of the fear!

Another amazing part of the book gave me license to fail and find success through failing. That thought concept allowed me to be even more creative with my thoughts and ideas, why not, there's no stress involved now because its OK if I fail, just go for it and have fun in the process! Your failures can only bring you that much closer to success!

Biz has a very organic way of writing in which he emotionally and entertainingly draws the reader into his life's roller-coaster ride of reality. By sharing so many personal, intimate moments though out the book, from his financial struggles, to a variety of failures and successes, and his heart-warming love of family and friends and risible humor, you can't help but relate to his stories in so many different ways. It makes you realize that this profoundly successful person is not all that different from you!

What I got from the book is... Don't be afraid of taking chances, think of all the amazing people you will meet along the way... its bound to be a lot more interesting and fun than just sitting around doing nothing for another 10, 15, 20 years!

Thanks Biz!!
