You're Going to Be My Mom!: A 40-Week Devotional Journey Through Your Pregnancy by Astrid Rivera

Not Like Any Other.

Beautiful 4-color devotional journey through your pregnancy. Growth guide, prayers and devotional thoughts from the unborn baby. This book makes a great gift for soon-to-be mothers.

My Personal Review:
This book helped me to bond with my baby, the way no other book did throughout my pregnancy. It is written as though the baby is speaking. Each week it contains a short letter from the baby, it contains a small account of what is happening with you and the baby that week, a small prayer and scripture for that week and beautiful photography. This book helped me to connect with God and with my baby throughout my pregnancy.
